

This article comes from the Bayeux Tapestry Museum website: <http://www.tapissierie-bayeux.com>

Page address: <http://www.tapissierie-bayeux.com/index.php?id=322>

Visit

A few words about the museum

The Bayeux Tapestry Museum is open every day of the week (except for nine annual closing days).

For more information, see the opening hours for the museum and the documentary film. This is a sixteen-minute presentation of the historical context of the Tapestry, with alternating sessions in French and English.

Audio guides are available in 14 languages (French, English, Dutch, German, Italian, Spanish, Japanese, Chinese, Czech, Norwegian, Danish, Swedish, Russian and Hebrew) to help you learn about the Tapestry (20 minutes).

You can also find information on prices, access to the museum, the floor map for each level and the history of the building.

Different equipment is available on request, and there is a group booking service.

Please contact us for further information.